

Larry’s Lines....

I Can’t Get No Satisfaction

As I turned the key in the ignition my car radio sprang to life. Some popular singer was belting out the lyrics, “I can’t get no satisfaction.” I didn’t care for the song and turned the dial. But the memory lingered. I wonder how many people there are in the world who can’t find satisfaction? And do they even know where to look?

Countless people are on record to testify that satisfaction doesn’t come in gathering up things for ourselves. As Horace said, “Those who seek for much are left in want of much. Happy is he to whom God has given, with sparing hand, as much as is enough.” And satisfaction doesn’t come in showing off a Gold Card, or bragging about one’s possessions. In fact, “If the crow had been satisfied to eat his prey in silence, he would have had more meat and less quarreling and envy.”

I learned something last week from a commercial. Normally, I don’t care for commercials. They carry about as much weight with me as a political jingle, but this one caught my attention. The man was explaining that when he was growing up he tried everything in the world to make his sister cry. Nothing he tried worked. Then last week he decided to send her a bouquet of flowers, and you know what? She cried. Sometimes we get the desired results in the most unexpected ways. Take the young woman with a busy schedule, and small children, who went out of her way to minister to a family in need. After her mission was completed she said, “I just have to do more of that,“It really makes me feel good inside.” David knew people who were saying, “Oh that we might see some good!” But he confessed to God, “Thou has put more joy in my heart than they have when their grain and wine abounds”(Psalm 4:7). Only by drawing near to God would he ever find complete satisfaction. Thus he says, “As for me, I shall behold thy face in righteousness; when I awake, I shall be satisfied with beholding thy form”(Psalm 17:15).

It’s sad that a lot of people can’t find any satisfaction because they don’t know where to look. Take out your Bible and read John 10:10.

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
Larry
