

Who Says Grace Anymore?

When Isaac blessed Jacob he said, "May God give you the of dew of heaven, and of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and wine." That became Jacob's lot...and ours. Not all people have been so blessed. Two thirds of the world's population have a constant companion-hunger. Heads of families stand by in helplessness while starvation stalks the land. Faces grow gaunt, bones protrude and children cry. Mothers speak in soft tones, but soothing words cannot fill empty bellies. But with most us it is different. In a world of plenty, our tables fairly groan under the weight of wholesome food.

But are we thankful? Do you say grace when you are about to eat? Many have dropped this ancient but simple act before meals. Have we forgotten where our bread comes from? Oh yes, we have tractors, fertilizers, irrigation wells and the know-how. But we are still dependent upon God?. We haven't learned to send the sunshine or bring down the rain. And causing the seed to sprout and grow still remains a secret locked up in the mind of God. So it is still needful for man to pray, "Give us this day our daily bread."

The next time you gather with your family around the table be sure to pause and pray. Let every head be bowed. Let every heart be filled with gratitude.

*In such prayers we:
Acknowledge our dependence upon God...
Thank Him for what we have received..
And teach our children gratitude by example.*

With the blessing of Jacob upon us, it's the least we can do.

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
Larry

Upcoming Events

A baby shower has been planned for Colton and Kristina Hill, the proud parents of Kenton Scott. It will take place downstairs, TODAY from 2:00 -4:00. We are asking that you give cash or gift cards to help defer some of the cost they have incurred with Kenton's premature birth.

Deacons Meeting,
TODAY at 5:00.
All Deacons need to plan to attend.
