

Larry's Lines...

Just Me And Jesus

Who can say, "I've never made a mistake: I'm free of all sin?" Of course, there are some who act as if this were true. In their own eyes it's "just me and Jesus." They are paragons of virtue: lily white. And if anything goes wrong they are quick to fasten the blame-somewhere else. "It's his fault. Don't blame me." Such smugness reminds me of Pietro Mascagni's dedication of his opera, The Masks: To myself, with distinguished esteem and unalterable satisfaction". Rare is the man who is willing to say:

It's me, it's me, it's me, O Lord,
Standin' in need of prayer.

But the truth of the matter is, "we all make mistakes" (James 3:2). No one is an exception. And John adds, "If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us"(1John 1:8).

A knowledge of our short comings ought to make each of us:

A little more humble. Mistake-prone, it's indecent of me to be as proud as Lucifer. I need to make a right estimate of myself. As Paul said, "Do nothing from selfishness or conceit, but in humility count others better than yourselves"(Philippians 2:3). Montgomery wrote.

Nearest the throne itself must be
The footstool of humility.

A little more penitent. To err is human. But you can distinguish the righteous from the unrighteous by this test, "Is he sorry for his sins?" It's becoming that men "should repent and turn to God to perform deeds worthy of their repentance" (Acts 26:20)

A little more tolerant. Perfection is not on earth. If I make mistakes why should I be surprised when my brother does? Remember the story of the woman taken in adultery. Jesus commanded the crowd, "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her." Confronted with this test "they went away, one by one, beginning with the eldest, and Jesus was left alone with the women standing before him"(John 8:8,9).

Jesus was left standing "alone" Maybe it's not "just me and Jesus." Maybe it's Jesus alone.

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
Larry
