Larry's Lines....

A CUP OF COLD WATER

"And whoever gives to one of these little ones even a cup of cold water because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he shall not lose his reward." (Matthew 10:42)

Solomon built the temple. It was a magnificent building that was dedicated to the glory of God. But few men have the ability or the temporal abundance to perform such great deeds. For those of us with lesser abilities, Jesus has a message of cheer. Smaller ministries have their rewards. The giver of a cup of cold water will not be forgotten.

"My day has all gone"-twas a woman who spoke, as she turned her face to the sunset glow-"and I have been busy the whole day long; yet for my work there is nothing to show." Neither painting nor sculpture her hand had wrought; No laurel of fame her labor had won. What was she doing in all the long day, with nothing to show at set of the sun? Humbly and quietly all the long day had her sweet service for others been done; yet for the labors of heart and of hand, what could she show at set of sun? Ah, she forgot that our Father in heaven, ever is watching the work that we do, And records He keeps of all we forget. Then judges our work with judgment that's true; For an angel writes down in a volume of gold, the beautiful deeds that all do below. Though nothing she had at set of the sun, the angel above had something to show. There are hundreds of little things, which cry out for the doing;

The touch of a hand....
The tear shed in sympathy...
The word cheerfully spoken...
The smile lovingly given.

The small acts, clothed with graciousness, are cups of cold water to dry and parched lips.

In fact, Wordsworth calls it

"...That best portion of a good man's life is his little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and of love".

It is not the magnitude of the service that determines the size of the reward. For long after the giver and the recipient have forgotten the cup of cold water, the King remembers and says, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." (Matthew 25:40)

Have a Great Day

Larry
