

Larry's Lines...

A Friend Indeed

"Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint" (Proverbs 25:19)

"Where were you when I needed you!" goes the cry. There are certain moments when genuine friendship has opportunity to prove itself. The "time of trouble" tests the faithfulness of friends. Prosperity brings friends; Adversity test them.

One may fall victim to various kinds of trouble: ...trouble in circumstances, when one suffers serious reverses,....trouble in reputation, when misrepresentation and slander casts its shadow of suspicion ...trouble in character, when one has fallen into sin.

In these moments of misery, faithful friendship is especially needed. These are the times of testing for the confidence we've placed in others. The "unfaithful man" now fails those who've trusted him. Our text teaches that an "unfaithful man" is as little to be relied on in "time of trouble" as a "broken tooth and a foot out of joint"... you can't bite on one and you can't walk on the other!

The "unfaithful man" brings deep disappointment! He fails you when most needed. He's the one in whom you thought you could place confidence. You thought he would stand up for you when you needed him. You didn't think he would use you for political maneuvering. You offered your friendship when he was in need. But, at the moment of your greatest need he was nowhere to be found.

Be sure you select only good men as confidants. "Fair-weather" friends fail when stormy weather comes. Equally important is the need to be the right kind of friend... the kind who can be confidently trusted in "time of trouble."

Have A Great Week
Larry
