

Larry’s Lines...
WHERE I WORK

Man has worked since the garden of Eden. Much of our time is consumed each day at the office, in the plant, in the field, etc., “You shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands” (Psalms 128:2).

Very few of us work in solitary fashion. We come in contact constantly with others in the course of our work. They listen to our speech and observe our conduct. They have an opportunity to see us “up close and personal.” They become aware of our strengths and weaknesses. Knowing this to be true, there are a number of questions I should ask myself.

Am I known as a Christian where I work? Is my life different enough from the world that somehow I shine as a light in the world?

Is Christ more loved or, at least, more respected at my business place because of the way I live? He should be if I am living as a child of God.

Do those who know me best, believe in me most? They should.

Do I criticize the church and other Christians? Such careless action on my part will surely undermine my efforts to bring others into the fold of God.

Is the fruit of the Spirit evident in my life? Love , joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control should be apparent (Galatians 5:22, 23). “If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit” (Galatians 5:25).

Am I free from self-conceit, provocation and envy? I should be. Read Galatians 5:26.

Do people know me as one whose conversation is constantly pure and kind? By the help of the Holy Spirit I should have this kind of reputation.

Can I work with other people? And can others work with me? It should be so.

Perhaps it is time for many of us to take a spiritual check-up just to see how we are doing.

Have A Great Week
Larry
