

Larry's Lines...

The Hidden Future

I believe in goal-setting...in knowing where we're going...and planning, as best we can, the steps it will take to get there. But I'm glad we don't know in advance all the things which will happen en route.

Think of where you have been. If you had known all the roadblocks, struggles, and pains which have accompanied the journey you likely would never have started. Thankfully, you were venturing into the unknown.

We want to know the future. We make careful analyses and detailed plans. Yet, God is good to shield us from the future. Otherwise we would be paralyzed with dread. God gives us life a bite at a time. How wise and loving of him.

He leadeth me: O blessed thought!
O words with heavenly comfort fraught!
Whatever I do, where'er I be,
Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.

"Do not be anxious about tomorrow," Jesus said. "Let the day's own trouble be sufficient for the day" (Matthew 6:34). Don't borrow trouble from the future. Enjoy today.

Have A Great Week
Larry

Silly boys! Sadly, they may not have the opportunity to go to school if their parents are unable to buy their uniforms, shoes and school supplies. We hope you will join us and help give these sweet boys and many other girls and boys the education they need.

Auction items include acts of service and hand-crafted items. Everything is donated so that 100% of the money given will go directly to Honduras to purchase school supplies for more than 200 boys and girls who wouldn't be able to attend school without your help.
