

Larry's Lines

Abundant Pardon

Jesus never met a man he wouldn't save. Look through the gospel records and see for yourself. You will never find him saying, "I wish I could help you, but there is nothing I can do." You will never hear him say, "Your case is too difficult for me." He died for the sins of the world-all of them. He shed his blood for the remission of sins-all sins. No wonder he was such an attraction for a world lost in sin.

Let lost men "seek the Lord while he may be found, call upon Him while he is near...For he will abundantly pardon." (Isaiah 55:6-7) Have no lingering doubts about God's pardon. It is abundant. Those who have fled to Christ for refuge have not been disappointed-nor will you be.

God will abundantly pardon. This is not to minimize the sins we commit. It is to focus on the power and grace of God to forgive us of our sins. The poet was right when he said:

See here an endless ocean flows,
Of never-failing grace,
Behold a dying Saviour's veins,
The sacred flood increase.

It rises high and drowns the hills,
Has neither shore nor bound,
Now, if we search to find our sins,
Our sins can ne'er be found.

Have a Great Week
Larry
