

Larry's Lines

The Blessing of Parents

We owe our parents a debt that we will never be able to repay. Think of the utter helplessness of the long years of infancy. Remember your sweet mother who, with a sense of responsibility, bent over your cradle. Consider the times of sickness when she chose to forgo sleep to nurse you back to health. Think of your father who paid the bills and worked long and hard to provide you with clothing and to furnish a comfortable place for you to live.

How can we ever repay our parents for their watching, anxieties, labors, toils, trials, patience, and love? Think of the cares and anxieties which were kept from us in order that we might enjoy a grand and beautiful morning in life. The dark and lowering clouds, the bleak and dreary days were carefully tucked out of our sight so that we might walk in sunshine. Think of the long years of unwearied toil and soul-felt devotion of our parents. They have corrected us in love, knowing that important lessons must be learned if one is to make it over the rough pathway of life and build a character that is worthwhile.

Oh, what thankfulness should fill our heart. Surely our father and mother deserve our love and respect. As in every area of life, Jesus set the example. The scripture reminds us that Jesus went down with his parents, "and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them." (Luke 2:51)

You need to take the opportunity to tell your parents "Thank You" and "I Love You" while you still can, because one day you may not have the chance to do that anymore.

*Happy Mother's Day!
Larry*
