When One Fails

Failure! What a haunting word. No one deliberately sets out to experience it. As Bulwer-Lytton has said:

In the lexicon of youth, which
Fate reserves for a bright manhood,
there is no such word
As-FAIL!

But somewhere between youth and old age we discover not only the word, but its full meaning. “How are the mighty fallen!”

Once there were twelve men. Men picked by Jesus. Men who heard Him speak. Men who saw his miracles. Men who knew He was the Christ. Men who had a mission. And with that mission came duty. To fail in duty is unthinkable . But it happened. Even in the inner-circle of the disciples of Jesus. There in the Garden of Gethsemane Jesus told Peter, James and John, “Remain here, and watch with me.” Later he would say, “Watch and pray”. The words are clear. The duty is plain. “Watch and pray.” But it’s one thing to know what one’s duty is and another thing to do it. On this night so long ago the disciples failed. They went to sleep. Sleeping sentries! One cannot watch or warn when at his post of duty he sleeps. It is always a very grave offense if a sentry be found sleeping at his post. Often the penalty for that is death. What will Jesus do with these failures? Will He put them to death? Will He cast them off forever? Do they not deserve whatever their sentence may be? But Jesus always astonishes us. He says, “The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak” (Matt. 26:41). Never was there a more kindly allowance. Deserving death, the disciples receive understanding. What a Savior!

Have a Great Week!

JAR ADULT MENTORING PLAN

The mentoring list is finalized and is posted in the foyer. The teens are filling out a questionnaire about themselves for the mentors to get to know them better. (Teens, yours is green)
You are looking for this logo.

If you are a mentor, there is a yellow questionnaire form for you to fill out, so the teens you are paired with get to know you better. You are looking for this logo. Turn in to Jeremy when filled out.
When they are completed, we will exchange them. An event is being planned for the fall for the teens and mentors can get together. In the meantime, how can you encourage our teens in their faith?
