

That “Run -Down” Feeling

Do you feel like you are just going through the motions in life? Are you ever keyed up, on edge and run-down all at the same time? Do little things unnerve you? Has the tension been building until you can almost feel the “snap” coming? If so, what are you going to do about it?

Some think that the solution lies in adjusting one’s work schedule. Of course, it’s possible for one to work too much. But I am reminded of John Wesley who always arose at 4 A.M. and often preached five sermons a day. When asked how he did it, he said he never hurried, he never worried, and he had no wearing anxieties. Maybe that’s the key. William James has written: “Neither the nature nor amount of work is accountable for the frequency and severity of our breakdowns. Their cause lies, rather, in the absurd feeling of hurry and having no time, in breathlessness, tension and anxiety.”

Release is often sought through recreation. That can be a partial answer depending on the kind and amount of recreation. One might find that his recreation is more fatiguing than re-creating, and that’s not good.

Some search for some tranquility of life through medicines. A trip to the doctor for stimulants, depressants or tranquilizers is sure to work the needed miracles-at least, that is the hope. Now our youth is being led to “turn on or turn off” with drugs.

Why have we been disappointed time and again? The strain tightens, the anxiety increases and we cry is there an answer?

Isaiah thinks there is an answer. Look at what he writes in Isaiah 40:31.

They who wait for the lord will renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not be faint.

So the next time you feel that you are running out of strength, look to God. If you will rely upon Him, He will not fail you. With strength renewed, you can soar like an eagle, strongly, swiftly and heaven-ward.

Have a Great Week!
Larry
